The Equinox M4230 EMV Merchant Activated Payment Terminal

EQUINOX PAYMENTS

Equinox Payments, headquartered in Scottsdale, Arizona is a leading payment terminal manufacturer and related secure software provider. Equinox has expanded its core business to focus on becoming an enabler of cloud-based convergence to provide connectivity and integration between retailers, payment processors, consumer data, and payment credentialing systems—all while providing its customers with the opportunity to lower their operating costs.

Up to $75 Rebate

For each M4230 EMV sold*

Rebate offers are good for M4230 EMV devices sold between February 1, 2013 and February 28, 2013.

*Restrictions apply. While supplies last. Receive the following dollar rebates on the number M4230 EMV terminals sold during the contest period:

1-125 units sold:	$25.00 rebate for each unit sold
125-250 units sold:	$50.00 rebate for each unit sold
251+ units sold:	$75.00 rebate for each unit sold

Rebate dollar amount earned will be paid out in the equivalent amount of free Equinox M4230 EMV (PN 010341-007R) hardware only. For example, selling 10 M4230 EMV terminals in February would earn $250.00 rebate dollars. Those rebate dollars could then be exchanged for free Equinox M4230 EMV terminals.

Rebate terms: All Equinox terminals subject to this rebate incentive offer must be purchased through Equinox. Terminals sold or resold to another distributor are not eligible for this rebate offer. All rebates earned will be calculated from your "Sales Out" report submitted in March, 2013. The issuance of all rebates pursuant to this offer are subject to Equinox approval. Not valid with any other rebate offers or contract sales.
